INTRODUCTION.

THE present volume contains a continuation of the Index of the Wills proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury commenced by Mr. J. Challenor C. Smith, and covers the period 1558 to 1583, that is to say, the first twenty-five years of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and the archiepiscopates of Matthew Parker and Edmund Grindal.

The majority of the twenty-four registers which contain the wills here calendared possess preambles, and some few of them, notably Register "Martyn," have been enriched by the addition of coats-of-arms in the margin. These arms are of considerable interest both to the herald and to the genealogist, and it has been thought desirable to include a complete list of them in the following remarks upon the registers.

CHAYNAY.

The preamble to this register is as follows:-

Liber secundus Testamentorum decedentium per Prouinciam Cantuariensem habentium, etc. Quorum Testamenta auctoritate Venerabilium virorum Decani et Capituli Ecclesie Metropolitice Christi Cantuariensis ad quos omnis et omnimoda jurisdictio spiritualie et ecclesiastica que ad Archiepiscopum Cantuarien. sede plena pertinuit ipsa sede mortem bone memorie domini Reginaldi Poli Cardinalis Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi etc. iam vacante notorie spectat et pertinet approbatorum et insinuatorum a primo die mensis Aprilis Anno Domini M¹ vc Lixo vsque . . . . diem mensis Decembris extunc proxime sequentis Magistro Gualtero Haddon Curie prerogatiue Dictorum Decani et Capituli Custode et Commissario ac Thoma Argall Registrario.

Under the above are the Arms of Christ Church, Canterbury (Azure, on a cross argent the Greek letters Chi and Iota in pale, in black letter), and beneath them a tomb with an effigy thereon. At the foot of the page is a drawing in colours of the Good Samaritan administering oil and wine, with the priest and Levite passing by.

The first will in this register is that of Sir Thomas Cheyney, Knight, and "Treazorer of the Quens maiesties most Honorable Houshould," dated 6 December, 1558, and proved 25 April, 1559.

MELLERSHE.

The frontispiece of this volume is a painting of Archbishop Parker seated in his court with an official on either side. The Archbishop is vested in rochet, black chimere, and brown fur scarf. The sleeves of the rochet terminate at the wrists in broad brown fur bands; there is also an edging of the same material round the throat. The head is covered with a black cap. At the top of the page is a shield bearing the Arms of Christ Church, Canterbury, impaling those of Parker (Gules: on a chevron between three keys argent, as many estoiles or). Over the shield is the head of the Archiepiscopal Cross, and below are the words "Transit Myndys."

There is no preamble to this register. The first will is that of Alice Mellershe, of Wonershe, in Surrey, dated 2 March, 1558, and proved 10 December, 1559. On folio 1<sup>a</sup> is part of an instrument by Matthew Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, appointing Dr. Walter Haddon, Commissary of the Prerogative Court. Dated at Lambeth, 22 December, 1559, and approved and confirmed by the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury in the Chapter House, 9 February, 1559–60.

On the last leaf of folio 4 is the drawing of a weasel.

Folio 11.—Will of Sir John Williams, Knight, Lord Williams of Tame. Arms (in the margin coloured)—Azure: two organ-pipes in saltire, between four crosses paté argent.

Folio 17. — William Clopton, Esq. Arms (uncoloured) — A bend cotised indented.

Folio 26.—Arms of Argall (Registrar of the Court). Per fesse or and vert a pale counterchanged, three lions' heads erased gules.

Folio 41.—Over the will of Thurston Meade is a sketch of two men fighting a lion. One is armed with a spear, the other with sword and shield.

LOFTES.

Preamble.—Liber secundus a primo incipiens die mensis Januarii Anno Domini Millesimo quingentesimo sexagesimo continet Testamenta omnia et singula que ab eodem die auctoritate Reverendissimi in Christo patris et Domini Domini Matthei Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi in Curia Prerogatiue sue coram Magistro Gualtero Haddon Legum Doctore et eius in hac parte Commissario approbata et insinuata fuere. Thoma Argall Registrario.

Below are the words "Transit Mvndvs" and the Arms of Parker, surmounted by the head of the Archiepiscopal Cross.

STREET.

Preamble.—Tertius Liber Reuerendissimi in Xpo patris et domini Domini Matthei Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi totius Anglie Primatis et Metropolitani continens Testamenta omnia et singula quæ eius auctoritate a primo die Januarii Anno Domini Millesimo quingentesimo sexagesimo primo probata et insinuata fuere, coram venerabili viro Magistro Gualtero Haddon Legum Doctore curie Prerogatiue Cantuariensis Commissario et Thoma Argall eiusdem Registrario.

Below are the Arms of Parker.

The first will is that of Thomas Streete, of Ottelands, in the parish of Walton vppon Thames, Esquire, dated 14 November, 1561, proved 15 January, 1561–62.

On folio 9 are drawings of seven "Prodigies."

"Prodigia quedam contra solitum naturae cursum nata et in lucem
. . . . 1562." Five are beasts; one a deformed child "at Muche Horkesley in Essex, xximo Aprilis, Ao 1562"; and another is an elderly person, half skeleton, "at Chechester in Sussex, xxiiijo Maii, Ao 1562."

CHAYRE.

Preamble.—Liber Quartus Reuerendissimi Patris Domini Matthei Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi super approbatione Testamentorum auctoritate Prerogatiue sue a Primo Die Januarii Anno Domini Millesimo Quingentesimo Sexagesimo Secundo coram Magistro Waltero Haddon Legum Doctore dicte Curie Prerogatiue Commissario ac Thoma Argall Registrario eiusdem.

Below-1562, Transit Myndvs.

Above is a figure of Atropos holding the thread of life, one end of which is in the hands of Lachesis, a youthful figure on the right, and the other in those of Clotho, figured as a woman in the prime of life, on the left. The last holds the distaff. Atropos with shears is looking at Clotho and is about to cut the thread. On either side of Atropos are shields; that on the left bears the Arms of Parker, that on the right those of Argall (Per fess or and vert, a pale counterchanged, three lions' heads erased gules).

The first will in this register is that of William Chayre, citizen and leatherseller of London, dated 19 October, 1562, proved 4 January, 1562-63.

At the end of folio 14 is a drawing of a man's head wearing a plumed helm. The visor is up and perched thereon is a crow. On the helm are the words "Corvinus Valerius," and above, on a scroll, "Insperaturn Avxilium." Facing the above is a lion rampant holding a sword in his forepaws, and having over his head a scroll with the words "Vi superatur veritas."

Folio 27.—Will of Sir William Paget, of the noble order of the Garter Knighte, Lord Paget of Beaudesert, co. Middlesex. In the margin, drawn in pencil, is a shield bearing a cross, and encircled with the Garter.

Folio 31.—Will of Thomas Argall, of London, gentleman, Registrar of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury. At the head of the will are his Arms.

Arms.—Ermine, on a bend three leopards' faces (tincture of field only is shown).

At the end of folio 45, amongst the wills for 1578, is a pen-and-ink sketch. On the left a walled town with a bell and clock-tower; out of another tower is a pole with a man's head hanging therefrom. In front is a field with tents and soldiers. In a large tent is a bed, on which lies a man's body decapitated and blood pouring out. In the forefront are two ladies: one holds an open bag, the second has a sword in one hand and the man's head in the other. By the bed is a soldier with a halbert, seated in grief with his hand in front of his face.

Of the great officials of the realm we have here the wills of

The Court of Exchequer is represented by

Sir Robert Bell, Chief Baron, 1577. Henry Fanshawe, Esq., Queen's Remembrancer, 1568, and others; and the Court of Chancery by Jasper Fissher, Esq., one of the Six Clerks, 1579, and others.

Of the Privy Council, besides Thomas Wilson, Esq., one of the Principal Secretaries to the Queen, 1582, there is the will of Sir Ambrose Cave, Knt., 1571.

The Heralds College is represented by Laurence Dalton, Norroy King of Arms, 1561.

There are also the following wills of Ordnance Officials:-

Edward Randolphe, 1566, Lieutenant General of the Ordnance. Anthony Anthony, Citizen and Brewer of London, 1563, Surveyor General of the Ordnance.

Anthony Fenrutter, Esq., 1580, Master Gunner of England.

Thomas Mayo, 1573, Gunfounder to the Queen.

Thomas Morley, Esq., 1566, Clerk and Keeper of the Stores and Storehouses; whilst Edward Partridge, gent, 1575, appears as "Keper of the quenes curris<sup>rs</sup>, harquebutts, and daggls w<sup>t</sup>in the Tower."

There will be found several wills of sailors of the ships "Primrose" in 1562, and "Mynyon" in 1559; John Tuttyn, gunner of the ship "Golden Lion" of London, appears in 1580, and John Walker, clerk, preacher in the "Bonaventer" ship, in 1583.

William Thackwell, gent., "Mershall of the Admiraltie," occurs in 1566.

There are the wills of the following officials of the City of London:—

Ralph Cholmeley, serjeant at law, Recorder, 1563. William Blackwell, gent., Common Clerk, 1570.

Of other City men mention may be made of Richard Reason, 1575, "writer of the Court letter of the citie of London"; and the various City Companies are well represented.

In 1579 there occurs the will of Jerome Claren, "Steward of the London House of the Hanseatic merchants called the Stilliard," and in 1565 that of Balthazar Rainstroppe, "cheffe clerk to the Stillyerde."

The wills of several merchants of the Staple will be found, and also that of Henry Slaney, 1578, "Keeper of the Staple or English House in Bruges."

Of members of Religious Houses dissolved in the previous reigns, there are the wills of

Robert Brock, clerk, 1577, "late Deane of the dissolved College of Burton uppon Trent."

Richard Bromley, clerk, 1576, "somtymes Prior of the late monasterie of the Vale of the Crosse."

Margaret Russell, 1568, "sometyme Abbesse of the late dissolved monastarye of Tarrant in diocese of Bristol."

Builders are represented by William Flint, freemason, 1589, builder of Gatton Church in Surrey.

Of Musicians, besides those mentioned above under Court officials, there is the will of Robert White, Mus. Bac., 1576,

"master of the quiresters" at Westminster, which, by the way, appears to have been called a "cathedral church" for many years after it ceased to be the seat of a bishopric.

The spirit of enterprise manifested by the English under Elizabeth is exemplified by the wills of persons dying abroad, such as—

Edward Clerke, 1566, who "died in Muskovie," and Arthur Edwards, 1580, who "died in Persia."

In 1569 will be found the will of Sir Robert Peckham, who died at Rome, where he made his will. He wished to be buried in the church of St. Gregory in Monte Cœlio in that city, but his heart was to be enclosed in lead and sent to his brother and heir in England.

Those who are interested in out-of-the-way forms of wills might refer to that of William Farrar, 1583. He purposed travelling to Ireland, and wrote his will in the form of a letter addressed to his sister.

Of the founders of Schools there are the wills of:

Sir Roger Cholmeley, Knt., Highgate, 1565.

John Glynne, Lewisham, 1568 (refounded eventually by Abraham Colfe in 1652).

William Lambe, Sutton Valence, Kent, 1580.

Lawrence Sheriff, Rugby, 1567.

For school benefactors reference should be made to the wills of John Turner, 1580 (Barnet and Tonbridge); David Morgan ap Thomas, 1581 (Lewisham); Maurice Griffith, Bishop of Rochester, 1560, and Thomas Davies, Bishop of Saint Asaph, 1573 (Bangor). There is the will of James Jacob, Usher of "Powles Scoole," 1560. Also of Jerome Hilton, 1580, and William Adams, 1583, both schoolmasters, the former in London, the latter at Newington in Kent.

This list of "testamenta notabilia" might be indefinitely prolonged, but enough has been said to show the interesting nature of the wills here calendared; and since it has not been found possible to add an Index of trades and professions, etc., to this volume, it is hoped that the above notes may be found useful by students.

The history of the Prerogative Court was fully gone into by Mr. J. C. C. Smith in his preface to the First Volume of this Index (Vol. X of THE INDEX LIBRARY), and nothing more need be said here on the subject. Attention, however, is directed to the will of John Bullock, of co. Essex, 1560, as being a case in which a P.C.C. grant was renounced on the ground that the testator had no goods outside his own diocese.

The task of compiling this volume, which contains references to about 14,000 wills, was most kindly undertaken for the British Record Society by Dr. S. A. Smith. To him the warmest thanks of all historical and genealogical students are due, thanks which will shortly require renewal, since his further instalment of the Calendar, bringing it down to the death of Queen Elizabeth in 1603, is nearly ready for the press.

When the slips had been prepared from the Will Registers, the whole was carefully checked from the Probate Act Books by Mr. E. Cheyne, of the Principal Probate Registry, whose name is a sufficient guarantee for the thoroughness with which this portion of the work was effected. To him the Society is under very great obligations.

To Mr. J. Challenor Smith the Society is indebted for the Index Locorum to this volume, the preparation of which was no light task, involving constant reference to the wills themselves besides extensive correspondence. In the course of his work on this Index Mr. Smith was enabled to make several corrections in, and explanatory additions to, the Calendar, all of which are embodied in the "Notes and Corrections," and it is to be observed that some names of places occur in the Index Locorum on the assumption that all such notanda have been attended to.

It will be noticed that in many instances this Calendar gives no information as regards testators' abodes beyond the mere diocese. In the Index Locorum such entries are placed under the seat or cathedral town of the diocese. Consequently, for example, a few Surrey wills may be found under Hampshire (Winchester), and so on.

An arbitrary division in the index between London and Middlesex was found unavoidable, but this will probably facilitate research.

It is impossible to close these introductory remarks without an acknowledgment of the very material assistance rendered to the Society in the publication of this volume by Mr. G. E. Cokayne, Clarenceux King of Arms, which has enabled it to be completed and placed in the hands of students in much less time than would otherwise have been the case.

- p. 69. Clifford, Anthony. Transfer the words 'Dypers in Allington,' to line 5 before Wilts.
- p. 69. Clotworthy, Thomas, after Tracey insert Devon.
- p. 69. Coates (Cotes), John, for Hereford read Salop.
- p. 70. Cocker, Christopher. The places should read as follows: Croft, Lincoln;
  St. Ethelburga Bishopsgate, London. He wishes to be buried in the church in Bishopsgate "where myue uncle Claydon is buryed." This uncle Claydon is evidently Owen Claydon, of St. Ethelburga, Will 1569, and the printed register of St. Botolph proves that neither Christopher Cocker nor any Claydon was buried there.
  See Visitation of Cheshire, p. 68.
- p. 72. Collier, Nicholas, after dioc. Exeter add (? Somerset) Testator was of the parish of Brawdewey. N.B. Although mistakes as regards diocese are rare, there are several instances of Somerset people being described as of Dioc. Exeter.
